TALK HOMEWORK & 'WOW' WORDS

Each week we send a Talk Homework activity and 'Wow' Words home and we would be very grateful for your support.

We are trying to help all our children develop excellent speaking and listening skills, which in turn will help them with their writing. "If a child can't say a sentence then they can't write it either!"

Please spend at least 10 minutes talking with your child about the questions below;

Wimbledon started again this week, with Andy Murray trying to regain his place as champion. He had always wanted to win Wimbledon and it was his main goal in tennis. After a lot of set-backs and close-calls, he finally achieved his ambition in 2013 after years of hard work and dedication.

What are your ambitions and dreams? What would you really like to achieve when you're older? What do you think you would have to do to achieve them?

In Big Talk, we use 'WOW' Words to improve our vocabulary and 'big up' our sentences to make them more interesting
Our 'WOW' Word this week is;

Ambition

(Appetite, aspiration, desire, enthusiasm, hope, initiative, longing, passion)

Please encourage your child to use this word, in the right context, as much as possible.

Maths App of the Week!

Match Reports

Ely Vikings Korfball Tournament, Cambridge

Last Sunday Sienna, Sophie, Harriet, Joe, Jack, Kieran (Y6) and Abbie (Y4) played for the Norfolk A and B Under 11s at the Ely Korfball Tournament. With no outdoor Inter-Area competition this summer, it was great for the players to have another chance to play with team mates from Sprowston, Hillside and Avenues who had all played so successfully in January.

The A team was unbeaten all day and went into the final with a superb set of results behind them. It was fantastic to see both the A and B team in the final and what a final! The B team went ahead twice and with only seconds on the clock a long, accurate pass found Harriet close to the goal; with her defender far away she calmly turned towards the goal and steadily scored to end an exciting but frantic final 2-2.

Thank you to all the players for your hard work, and to all the parents and relatives who cheered on the teams and drove – your support is so much appreciated.
